

Articulation agreement between CGC and SLU from 2007 to Spring 2018:

Cardinal Glennon College operated a collaborative-model undergraduate formation program conjointly with the College of Philosophy and Letters of Saint Louis University from 2007 to Spring 2018. Seminary students completed two years of general education requirements at the University, and two years of philosophy and theology requirements at the seminary campus, culminating in the degree of Bachelor of Arts in Philosophy from Cardinal Glennon College.
