

CARDINAL GLENNON COLLEGE

Dress Code

Liturgical Attire

For daily Holy Mass, for the Liturgy of the Hours on Sundays, Solemnities, and Feasts, and when serving in liturgical roles, seminarians wear:

- Roman cassock and collar with square neck surplice
- Black dress slacks, black dress shoes and black socks
- Long sleeve white shirt (preferred on Sundays and Solemnities)

When serving at the Cathedral Basilica of St. Louis, a surplice is provided.

Formal Attire

For formal events and special occasions (e.g. the Glennon Lecture, the annual evaluation with the Rector, the Christmas Banquet, etc.), seminarians wear:

- Dress shirt (long sleeve preferred) with a traditional-style necktie
- Suit coat and trousers or sport jacket and dress slacks (preferably dark color)
- Dress shoes and dark socks which cover the ankle

Daily Attire*

For all Academic classes, Communal Prayer (except Night Prayer), Formation sessions, and Apostolic Service, seminarians wear:

- Seminary shirt (preferred) or approved diocesan collared shirt (if an undershirt is worn, white only)
- Slacks or dress pants (black, blue, or khaki slacks preferred; four pockets maximum; no denim)
- Solid black or solid brown shoes and socks which cover the ankle
- Sweater may be worn over Seminary shirt or Seminary sweater over a solid collared shirt

For Days of Recollection, Retreat, and at weekday meals in the dining room, seminarians wear:

- Seminary shirt (preferred), approved diocesan collared shirt, or other collared shirt with slacks (no denim) and solid black or solid brown shoes and socks which cover the ankle

Casual Attire

Jeans, shorts, sweatshirts, T-shirts, athletic wear, shirts with messages or advertisements, athletic shoes, and other casual clothes may be worn:

- During exercise, recreation, study or free time
- Friday after class, and on Saturdays and Sundays after Holy Mass

Caps or hats should not be worn indoors
